STANDARD CHARTERED BANK NIGERIA LTD.....GARNISHEE

RULING

Whereas a Garnishee Order Nisi was on the 6th day of April, 2016 made against STANDARD CHARTERED BANK NIGERIA LTD, and whereas the Garnishee (Standard Chartered Bank Nigeria Ltd), having filed an affidavit on 23rd October, 2018 showing that it has in its custody fund belonging to the Judgment Debtors only to liquidate the Judgment Debt and having not shown cause why it should not be paid over to the Judgment Creditor in satisfaction of the Judgment Debt against the Judgment Debtors in this case.

I have read the further cause shown by the Garnishee (Standard Chartered Bank Nigeria Limited) in respect of the interest element on the Judgment debt, wherein it was averred that the Garnishee has custody of the fund belonging to the Judgment Debtor, and listened and considered the submission of learned counsel on both side, wherein the told interest on the Judgment sum was worked out in the sum of N3, 833, 333, 33 covering the period of 28/11/2012 to the 08/07/2020, and I hereby make an Order Absolute in respect of that sum, that is N3, 833, 333, 33 to be paid over by the Garnishee (Standard Chartered Bank Nigeria Limited) to the Judgment Creditor forthwith. I only need to state, that the interest continues to run until the fund is paid by the Garnishee.
