That the Defendant does not thumb print documents as he personally signed some Bank Transfer Forms attached to his Notice of Intention to Defend.

That the Defendants does not have defence to this action.

I wish to observe that the undefended list procedure is a truncated form of ordinary civil hearing peculiar to our adversary system where the ordinary hearing is rendered unnecessarily due in the main to the absence of an issue to be tried or the quantum of Plaintiff's claim disputed to necessitate such a hearing. It is designed to quicken justice and avoid the injustice likely to occur where there is no genuine defence on the merits to the Plaintiff's case.

It is a procedure meant to shorten hearing of a suit where the claim is for liquidated money demand see UBA PLC VS JARGABA (2007) 5 SCI.

An action begun under the undefended list, is no less a trial between the parties and where a Defendant is properly served, he has a duty to disclose his defence to the action. ATAGUBA & CO. VS GURA (2005) 2 SC (pt. 11) 101.

However, notice of intention supported by affidavit so filed must condescend to issues stated in affidavit in support of the claim of the Plaintiff. A mere empty affidavit in support of the Notice of Intention to defend which disclose no defence shall certainly not sway the Court into transferring the matter to general cause list for trial.

Simply put, the Defendants affidavit must condescend upon particulars and should as far as possible, deal specifically with the Plaintiff's affidavit and state clearly and concisely what the defence is and what facts and document are relied on to support it.

Such affidavit in support of Notice of Intention to defend must of necessity disclose facts which will, at least throw some doubt on the Plaintiff's case.

A mere denial of Plaintiff's claim or liability or vague insinuation devoid of evidential value does not and will not suffer as facts, which will throw doubt on Plaintiff's claim. UBA PLC VS JARA GABA (Supra).

I have gone through the affidavit of Plaintiff in support of its claim brought under the undefended list in Order 35 of the Rules of this Court. I have also gone through the affidavit in support of Notice of intention to defend this action filed in compliance with Order 35 Rule 3(1) of the Rules of this Court.

The facts averred in affidavit in support of Plaintiff's case are such that if put side by side with those of the Defendant, certainly the reliefs claimed by Plaintiff cannot be resolved under Order 35 of the Rules of this Court.

By the power conferred on me therefore, I hereby transfer this suit to general cause list under Order 35 Rule 3 (2) of the Rule of this Court.

I order that evidence be led in prove of the respective cases of Plaintiff and Defendant in that Order.

This is the Ruling of the Court.
